

Seminar Report

Two days National Seminar on “Role of AYUSH in Health Care Management in NE India” held on 23rd - 24th Feb’2017, organized by North Eastern Institute of Ayurveda & Homoeopathy (NEIAH), Mawdiangdiang, Shillong, Meghalaya; sponsored by Rashtriya Ayurveda Vidyapeeth, New Delhi. The Seminar get started with an Inaugural Function chaired by Prof. (Dr.) P K Goswami, Director NEIAH, with august presence of Chief guest Prof. (Dr.) U C Sarma, VC, SSUHS, Assam, Guest of Honour Prof. (Dr.) P Bhattacharyya, Director NEIGRIHMS, and invited guest Prof. H Lamin, Pro-VC NEHU, Shillong, Meghalaya. On this occasion, Souvenir cum Abstract Book was released to the house. In the long two days programme, Two (02) Seminar Hall were arranged to run parallel Scientific Sessions. More than 120 scientific papers were presented by the delegates arrived from different part of the country. Out of which 16 lectures were Key Note Speeches. There were 06 (six) scientific sessions structured with Chairperson, Co-chairperson, Rapporteur, Key Note Speakers, Guest lectures and oral paper presentation. One best paper presentation from each session was awarded. Most of the paper presented on the research and development of AYUSH Health Care System in NE India, highlighting tremendous scope of research due to the rich source of medicinal plants and ethno-medicinal information on account of biodiversity in this region. There was a cultural programme organized, which conducted by the students of NEIAH in the evening of 23rd February. The Seminar was concluded with panel discussion cum valedictory function. The ending ceremony was chaired by Prof. (Dr.) P K

Goswami, Director NEIAH, Chief guest Prof. (Dr) P K Prajapati, Dean, AIIA, New Delhi, Guest of Honour Prof (Dr) K K Sharma, NIA, Jaipur and Dr. D Bhattacharyya, Dy Director AYUSH, Assam. Vote of thanks was offered by Dr. Binay Sen, the Organizing Secretary of the National Seminar.